Doctor of Acupuncture and Oriental Medicine ♦ Licensed Acupuncturist

I. Patient Advisory to Consult a Physician

Daniel N. Hsu, D.A.O.M., L.Ac. is committed to your health and well-being. While Oriental medicine has a great deal to offer as a health care system, it cannot totally replace the resources available through biomedical physicians. Consequently, it is recommended that you consult a physician regarding any condition or conditions for which you are seeking acupuncture treatment.

To comply with Article 160, Section 8211.1 (b) of NYS Education law, it is requested that you read and sign the following statement:

I undersigned, do affirm that _____ has been advised by Daniel N. Hsu, D.A.O.M., L.Ac., to consult a physician regarding the condition or conditions for which such patient seeks acupuncture treatment.

II. Informed Consent to Acupuncture Treatment

I consent to receiving acupuncture and other procedures associated with Traditional Oriental Medicine by Daniel N. Hsu, D.A.O.M., L.Ac. I have discussed the nature and purpose of these modalities with Daniel N. Hsu, D.A.O.M., L.Ac.

I understand that methods used may include but are not limited to: Acupuncture, moxibustion, cupping, guasha, electrical stimulation, Tui Na (Chinese bodywork), Chinese herbal medicine & nutritional counseling.

I have been informed that acupuncture is safe, but that it may have side effects, including but not exclusive of, bruising, numbness, or tingling near the needling sites that may last a few days, and dizziness or fainting. Bruising is a common side effect of cupping and guasha. Unusual risks of acupuncture include miscarriage, nerve damage, and organ puncture, including lung puncture (pneumothorax). Infection is another possible risk, although Daniel N. Hsu, D.A.O.M., L.Ac. uses sterile, disposable needles and maintains a clean and safe environment. I understand that while this document describes the major risks of treatment, other side effects and risks may occur.

The herbs and nutritional supplements (which are from plant, animal and mineral sources) which may be recommended are traditionally considered safe, although some may be toxic in large doses. I understand that some herbs may be inappropriate during pregnancy. Some possible side effects of taking herbs are nausea, gas, stomachache, vomiting, diarrhea, rashes, hives and tingling of the tongue.

I understand that herbs need to be prepared and consumed according to the instructions provided. The herbs may have an unpleasant smell or taste. I will immediately notify Daniel N. Hsu, D.A.O.M., L.Ac. of any unanticipated or unpleasant effects associated with the consumption of the herbal teas.

I will notify Daniel N. Hsu, D.A.O.M., L.Ac. who is caring for me if am or become pregnant.

I do not expect Daniel N. Hsu, D.A.O.M., L.Ac. to be able to anticipate and explain all possible risks and complications of all modalities, and I wish to rely on Daniel N. Hsu, D.A.O.M., L.Ac. to exercise judgment during the course of my visits which he thinks, based upon the facts then known is best in my interest.

I understand all of my records will be kept confidential and will not be released to any party without my written consent, in full compliance of HIPAA regulations. My signature below indicates that a written copy of Daniel N. Hsu, D.A.O.M., L.Ac.'s Notice of Privacy Practices was provided to me. I have also been informed that if I require additional information about this notice I may call Daniel N. Hsu, D.A.O.M., L.Ac.

By voluntarily signing below I show that I have read, or have read to me, this consent to all procedures, have been told about the risks and benefits of acupuncture and other procedures, and have had an opportunity to ask questions. I intend this consent form to cover the entire course of my visits for my present condition and for any future condition(s) during my visits to Daniel N. Hsu, D.A.O.M., L.Ac.

Payment Policy

Thank you for choosing us as your care provider. We are committed to providing you with quality care. We have developed this payment policy because some of our patients have had questions regarding patient and insurance responsibility for services rendered. Please read it, ask us any questions you may have, and sign in the space provided. A copy will be provided to you upon request.

- 1. Insurance. We participate in some insurance plans. Payment in full is expected at each visit if you are not insured by a plan with which we do business. If you are insured by a plan with which we do business but don't have an up-to-date insurance card, then payment in full for each visit is required until we can verify your coverage. Knowing your insurance benefits is your responsibility. Please contact your insurance company with any questions you may have regarding your coverage.
- 2. Co-payments and deductibles. All co-payments and deductibles must be paid at the time of service. This arrangement is part of your contract with your insurance company. We are legally required to bill you for your co-payments. If you are unable to pay your co-payment, then please bring it to our attention.
- 3. Non-covered services. Please be aware that some or all of the services you receive might not be covered or not considered reasonable or necessary by your insurance company. You must pay for these services in full at the time of visit. All payments are non-refundable.
- 4. Proof of insurance. All patients must complete our patient information form before seeing the doctor. We must obtain a copy of your driver's license and current valid insurance to provide proof of insurance. This is done for your protection. If you fail to provide us with the correct insurance information in a timely manner, you may be responsible for the balance of a claim.
- 5. Claims submission. We will submit your claims and assist you in any way we reasonably can to help get your claims paid. Your insurance company may need you to supply certain information directly. It is your responsibility to comply with their request. Please be aware that the balance of your claim is your responsibility whether or not your insurance company pays your claim. Your insurance benefit is a contract between you and your insurance company; we are not party to that contract.
- 6. Coverage changes. If your insurance changes, please notify us before your next visit so we can make the appropriate changes to help you receive your maximum benefits. If your insurance company does not pay your claim in 45 days, the balance will automatically be billed to you.
- 7. Nonpayment. If your account is over 90 days past due, you will receive a letter stating that you have 20 days to pay your account in full. Partial payments will not be accepted unless otherwise negotiated. Please be aware that if a balance remains unpaid, we may refer your account to a collection agency and you and your immediate family members may be discharged from this practice. If this is to occur, you will be notified by regular and certified mail that you have 30 days to find alternative care.
- 8. Missed appointments. Our policy is to charge $35 for missed appointments not canceled within 24 hours. These charges will be your responsibility and billed directly to you. Please help us to serve you better by keeping your regularly scheduled appointment.

Our practice is committed to providing the best treatment to our patients. Thank you for understanding our payment policy. Please let us know if you have any questions or concerns.

I have read and understand the payment policy and agree to abide by its guidelines:

Daniel N. Hsu, D.A.O.M, L.Ac. Notice of Privacy Practices

This notice contains important information about Daniel N. Hsu, D.A.O.M., L.Ac. Acupuncture privacy practices. This notice describes how medical information about you may be used and disclosed and how you can get access to this information. Please review it carefully.

I. What is this notice?

To run its program, Daniel N. Hsu, D.A.O.M., L.Ac. (DNH) must collect, maintain and use non-public personal information on patients it provides services to. We consider this information private and confidential and have policies and procedures in place to protect the information against unlawful use and disclosure. This notice describes what types of information as to our legal duties and privacy practices. It also describes your rights to access and control your non-public personal information (NPI).

DNH is required to abide by the terms of this notice. However, we may modify the terms of this notice at any time, and the new notice will be effective for all NPI in our possession at the time of the change, and any created or received thereafter.

Information DNH collects, uses and maintains on you is protected by Federal and state laws: the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA) and New York State Public Health Law. DNH does not disclose NPI to anyone, except with your authorization or otherwise as permitted by law.

If you believe your privacy rights under the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA) have been violated you can submit a written complaint to the DNH Privacy Office at info@nyacuhealth.com. You may also complain to the Secretary of Health and Human Services if you believe your privacy rights have been violated. There will be no retaliation for filing a complaint.

II. What is “non-public personal information” (NPI)?

Non-public personal information (NPI) is information that identifies you as an individual and relates to you participation in treatment, your physical or mental health/condition, the provision of treatment or healthcare to you or payment to DNH for the provision of services provided to you.

III. How does DNH protect NPI?

At DNH, we restrict access to NPI to members of our workforce (staff and trainees) who need to provide care or services to you or are engaged in important agency operations. We maintain physical and procedural safeguards to protect your information against unauthorized access and use. We also have established a Privacy Office that has overall responsibility for developing, educating our workforce about and overseeing the implementation and enforcement of policies and procedures to safeguard your health information against inappropriate access, use and disclosure, consistent with applicable law.

DANIEL N. HSU, D.A.O.M., L.Ac.
Doctor of Acupuncture and Oriental Medicine • Licensed Acupuncturist

IV. How does DNH use non-public personal information (NPI) and for what purpose?

Here are some examples of what we do with the information we collect and the reason it might be used.

Treatment: We may use information about you to provide medical treatment and services to you. We may use and share NPI with our staff and trainees who are involved with providing care to you. For example, information obtained by our staff will be recorded in a treatment record and used to determine your course of treatment.

Payment: We may use and disclose NPI so that treatment and services you receive may be billed to and payment collected from you or a third party. For example, we may complete and submit to your healthcare plan or insurance company a description of treatment provided to you. We may also use and disclose your NPI to obtain payment from other third parties that may be responsible for the costs, such as family members.

Health Care Operations: We may also use and disclose NPI to perform health care operations. This is necessary to make sure that all of our patients receive quality care. For example, we may use NPI to review our treatment and services and to evaluate the performance of our staff. We may also use and share NPI with other personnel for review and learning purposes.

V. What use and disclosures do not require your authorization?

We may use and disclose NPI without your authorization for the following purposes:

Business Associates: We may contract with outside individuals and organizations that perform business services for us such as billing, management consultants, quality assurance reviewers, accountants or attorneys. In certain circumstances, we may need to share your information with a business associate so it can perform a service on our behalf. DNH will limit the disclosure of information to a business associate to the amount of information that is the minimum necessary for the business associate to perform services for us. In addition, we will have a written contract in place with the business associate requiring it to protect the privacy of your information.

As Required by Law: We will disclose NPI when required to do so by federal, state or local law.

Public Health Activities/Risks: We may disclose NPI to public health authorities that are authorized by law to collect information for the purpose of:

- Reporting child abuse or neglect;
- Preventing or controlling disease, injury or disability;
- Notifying a person regarding potential exposure to a communicable disease;
- Notifying a person regarding the potential risk for spreading a disease or condition;
- Reporting reactions to drugs or problems with products or devices;
- Notifying individuals if a product or device we may be using has been recalled;
- Notifying appropriate government agencies and authorities regarding the potential abuse or neglect of an adult patient (including domestic violence); and
- Notifying your employer under limited circumstances related primarily to workplace injury or illness or medical surveillance.

DANIEL N. HSU, D.A.O.M., L.Ac.
Doctor of Acupuncture and Oriental Medicine • Licensed Acupuncturist

Health Care Oversight Activities: We may disclose NPI to a health oversight agency for activities authorized by law. Oversight activities can include: investigations, inspections, audits, surveys, licensure and disciplinary actions; civil administrative and criminal procedures or actions; or other activities necessary for the government to monitor compliance with civil rights laws and the health care system in general.

Lawsuits and Disputes: We may use and disclose NPI in response to a court or administrative order, if you are involved in a lawsuit or similar proceeding. We may also disclose your NPI in response to a discovery request, subpoena or other lawful processes by another party involved in the dispute, but only if we have made an effort to inform you of the request or to obtain a court order protecting the information the party has requested.

Law Enforcement: We may disclose NPI if asked to do so by a law enforcement official as part of law enforcement activities; in investigations of criminal conduct at the DNH or of victims of crime; in emergencies in order to report a crime (including the location or victims(s) of the crime, or the description, identity or location of the perpetrator); or when required to do so by law.

Serious Threats to Health or Safety: We may use and disclose your NPI when necessary to reduce or to prevent a serious threat to your health and safety or the health and safety of another individual or the public. Under these circumstances, we will only make disclosures to a person or organization able to help prevent the threat.

Military: We may use and disclose NPI if you are a member of the United States or foreign military forces (including veterans) and if required by the appropriate military command authorities.

Protective Services for the President, National Security and Intelligence Activities: We may use and disclose NPI to Federal officials for intelligence and national security activities authorized by law. We may also disclose your NPI to Federal officials in order to protect the President, and other officials or foreign heads of state or to conduct investigations.

Worker's Compensations: We may release NPI for worker's compensation or similar programs.

VI. What uses and disclosures of NPI require your authorization?

Individuals Involved in Your Care or Payment for Your Care? We may release NPI to a friend or family member identified by you, that is helping you pay for your treatment or who assists in taking care of you.

DANIEL N. HSU, D.A.O.M., L.Ac.
Doctor of Acupuncture and Oriental Medicine • Licensed Acupuncturist

VII. What are your rights governing the information that Dan Hsu, L.Ac. collects, uses and maintains on you?

The Right to Inspect and Copy:

You have the right to inspect and obtain a copy of your NPI that we maintain and have in our possession, including treatment records and billing records. If you request copies, we will charge you a fee for the costs of copying, mailing, labor and supplies associated with your request. To inspect and copy your NPI, you must submit your request in writing to info@nyacuhealth.com.

Under certain circumstances we may deny your request to inspect and copy your NPI. If you are denied access to this information, you have the right to have that determination reviewed. A licensed health care professional chosen by DNH will review your request and the denial. The person conducting the review will not be the person who denied your request. DNH promises to comply with the outcome of the review.

The Right to Amend or Correct NPI:

If you feel that any NPI we have about you is not correct or incomplete, you may ask us to correct or amend the information. You have the right to request an amendment for as long as the information is kept (seven years) by us. To request an amendment, your request must be made in writing to the address below. Additionally, you must provide a reason that supports your request.

DNH reserves the right to deny your request for an amendment if it is not in writing or does not include a reason to support the request. In addition, we may deny your request if you ask us to amend information that:

- Was not created by us;
- Is not part of the medical information kept by us;
- Is not part of the information which you would be permitted to inspect and copy; or
- Is accurate and complete.

The Right to an Accounting of Disclosures:

An accounting of disclosures is a list of the disclosures we have made, if any, of your NPI.

You have the right to request an accounting of disclosures made by us. This right applies to disclosures for purposes other than those made to carry out treatment, payment and health care operations as described in this notice. It also excludes communications of NPI made to you or disclosures authorized by you.

Your request must be made in writing and state a time period that cannot be longer than (6) years and cannot include dates before April 14, 2003. We may charge you for the costs of providing the list. We will notify you of the cost involved and you may choose to withdraw or modify your request at the time before any costs are incurred.

The Right to Receive Communications of NPI by Alternative Means or at Alternative Locations:

You have the right to request that we communicate with you about your treatment and related issues in a particular manner or at a certain location. For example, you may ask that we contact you at work rather than at home. We will accommodate all reasonable requests made in writing.

DANIEL N. HSU, D.A.O.M., L.Ac.
Doctor of Acupuncture and Oriental Medicine ♦ Licensed Acupuncturist

The Right to Request Restrictions:

You have the right to request a restriction or limitation on the NPI we use or disclose about you for treatment, payment or health care operations as described in this notice. You also have the right to request a limit on the treatment information we disclose about you to someone who is involved in your case or the payment for your care (like a family member or friend).

DNH is not required to agree to your request, however, if we do agree, we will comply with your request until we receive notice from you that you no longer want the restriction to apply.

Any request for a restriction on our use and disclosure of your NPI must be made in writing to the address below. Your request must describe in a clear and concise manner: (a) the information you wish restricted; (b) whether you are requesting to limit our use, disclosure or both; and (c) to whom you want the limits to apply.

The Right to Provide an Authorization for Other Uses and Disclosures:

We will obtain your written authorization for uses and disclosures that are not identified by this notice or permitted by applicable law. Any authorization you provide to us regarding the use and disclosure of your NPI may be revoked at any time in writing to the address below. After you revoke your authorization, we will no longer use or disclose your NPI for the purposes described in the authorization, except under the following circumstance:

- We have action in reliance upon your authorization before we receive your written revocation

The Right to Obtain a Paper Copy of This Notice:

You have the right to obtain a paper copy of this notice of privacy practices at any time.
